The strategic business destination in Central and Eastern Europe

Financial Times Live, in partnership with the Government of Bulgaria, cordially invites you to attend an executive dinner at Hotel Lotte in Seoul on Wednesday 6th March.

As part of a global series sponsored by the EU, this inaugural event will address the economic prospects, key areas of growth and business development opportunities within this exciting emerging market.

With a stable political and regulatory environment, attractive tax regime and one of the most competitive costs of labour in Central and Eastern Europe, Bulgaria has made progress in creating a favourable investment climate.

Join senior policy makers and business leaders to hear how macroeconomic fundamentals, strategic location and membership to the EU make it an advantageous location for businesses.
