VITAMIN C SERUM

MEDI&COS PURE VITAMIN SERUM ("C")

Since vitamin naturally oxidizes in air, when cosmetic products containing vitamins are developed, it is normally assumed that some degree of primary oxidation occurs.

Also, while the consumers use the cosmetic products, oxidation continues, lowering the effect of vitamins.

“MEDI&COS”, which allows the user to mix the contents packed in capsules that can be mixed upon use, in order to reap the top benefits of vitamins, without pre-mixing the powers like other products on the market.

Vitamin “C” : 15%

Hyaluronic Acid : 1%
