OUR BUSINESS

Our activities are focused in the agribusiness sector, including the transformation and development of land; international trade; irrigated seed multiplication, and real estate.

We have a sustainable business model characterized by a high level of professionalism. Under this policy, Velay operates 20 fields, strategically located in Argentina and Bolivia, totalling over 106,000 hectares.

Our commercial team is focused on marketing our production all over the world; and our operational team is dedicated to turning logistics networking design into competitive advantages, in order for our customers to receive their products on-time and at the best conditions.
