ABOUT US

Who We Are?

We are a young and reliable, agricultural, grain and feed merchandising company based in Buenos Aires, Argentina. We supply conventional and organic grains, oilseeds and ingredients for the food and feed industry.

Graneles Sudamericanos originates from carefully selected suppliers located in South America, mainly in Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay. These countries have an exceptional environment for healthy food production. Ensuring food security is a big challenge nowadays and in the next few years.

We know the prompt delivery of high quality and traceable products to shippers is very important to our customers.

Our mission

Graneles Sudamericanos aims at a sustainable agricultural development. It provides a production model to each of the farmers with whom it contracts. It uses a follow-up system of sustained crop rotation in each field in order to keep a minimal soil disturbance, getting agricultural diversity and food safety.

Graneles Sudamericanos wishes to expand its current trader status and wishes to grow in the frame of its activity. The company is always ready to establish reliable partnerships with other organizations who also wish to establish long term and mutual beneficial relationships.

Graneles Sudamericanos believes that it can make a profit on a model where it can combine nature and technology for a healthier life.
