INGREDIENTS MATTER

Actually they matter the most when it's about a skincare product. That's why Ingredients drive our product innovation.

Some skincare brands focus on a single ingredient and surround it with fillers. We don't. Each of our ingredients is highly effective and doesn't need to be supplemented with fillers or emulsifiers. We don't use artificial colourants or preservatives either.

We create luxury skincare products with lavish ingredients such as gold, champagne, silk, truffle, rose oil, cloudberry, and more – not just because they are clinically proven to be effective agents in anti-aging, but because these ingredients are designed to indulge your senses and pamper your skin.

WHOM?

Our products are made for those who are looking for quality products and want skincare to boost their holistic well-being.

Typically when I discover new natural cosmetics, I find one or two special ingredients that are so-called "power boosters". In the case of Purodré, however, the list of raw materials is like a gem shop!
