

Flavours of New South Wales

Meet premium NSW food and beverage manufacturers at Fine Food Australia

International customer delegation invitation 11 – 14 September 2023, Sydney Australia

Investment NSW would like to invite international food and beverage buyers and wholesale distributors to attend Fine Food Australia, Australia's leading trade exhibition for the food industry.

Fine Food Australia is the largest food and beverage industry trade show in the southern hemisphere, with over 1,000 exhibitors and 24,000 trade visitors from over 50 countries.

At Fine Food Australia, you can discover the latest premium products and innovations from various sectors within Australia's foodservice, hospitality, and the food and beverage manufacturing industry.

Meet with us at the Flavours of New South Wales (NSW) zone to discover the diverse food and beverage manufacturing capabilities of the state of NSW.

The Flavours of NSW zone will be home to 21 premium, innovative, niche businesses and the Investment NSW stand 'HJ6'.

The Flavours of NSW zone will be located on the Lower Level of ICC, within the Taste of Australia section.

Join us at this leading event. Register your interest here and also at: finefoodaustralia.com.au

Date

11–14 September 2023

Location

Sydney International Convention Centre (ICC)
Darling Harbour

How to apply

Contact your local Investment NSW representative or email flavoursofnsw@investment.nsw.gov.au

Flavours of New South Wales

Investment NSW encourages international customers interested in NSW's diverse premium food and beverage offering to join us at Fine Food Australia. The tradeshow is an unparalleled vehicle for meeting premium NSW food and beverage manufacturers, producing regional specialties, natural healthy goods, and a variety of gourmet products.

If you are a retailer, importer or distributor seeking Australian food and beverages for retail, food service, ingredients, and e-commerce channels – this event is for you.

Participate in an exclusive program and unlock opportunities

As an international customer in our delegation, you will have the chance to participate in a program of tailored business matching and events to complement the exhibition (places are limited). Your participation will provide the opportunity to:

- Discover NSW's premium quality, nutritious, clean and sustainable produce.
- Meet NSW suppliers in a tailored program to match your sourcing needs, either at the Fine Food tradeshow or across Sydney and NSW at your discretion.
- Attend the Flavours of NSW networking drinks on 12 September 2023 and potentially other associated activities such as a buyers breakfast, retail and site visits.

- Learn about the Australian market, latest trends and new suppliers.
- Access key government and industry officials to support your engagement with NSW food and beverage manufacturing sector.

Register your interest

To register your interest in being a part of Investment NSW's international customer delegation, please contact your local Investment NSW representative or email flavoursofnsw@investment.nsw.gov.au

You will need to register your attendance at Fine Food Australia 2023.

Register your interest here and also at: finefoodaustralia.com.au

Part of the New South Wales Government