ABOUT US

Our company was founded in 2000 by Silvina Marotti, and since then engaged in the design and manufacture of furs and leather garments, making them a unique product and object of desire for high quality and glamour.

Since launching of the first collection, the company produced a remarkable growth, from a very short period to become an international benchmark for fashion fur and leather.

In 2003 our couture clothing were exhibited in sophisticated shops in Madrid, Barcelona, Prague, Rome and Milan, making collections that accompanied the European women's preferences.

In 2005, the positioning in the best boutiques of the capital of the world allows Silvina Marotti share with the most famous stained glass designers, being common for multi brand stores display our garments with collections of Balenciaga, Giorgio Armani, Dior, Prada, Gucci and Dolce & Gabbana, to name a few.

Today you can visit Silvina Marotti collection in showrooms in Milan (Italy) in Danielle Ghiselli and in Madrid (Spain) in Trend2You.

An important milestone occurred in 2004 with the launch of our online designs for decoration line, under the brand Silvina Marotti Home. The carpets, blankets and cushions in the skins of fox, chinchilla and nutria are some of the leading exponents of a line that has won the most outstanding presence in decorating stores.

We have the support of Argentina Foreign Ministry for the participation of international events as the representative of Argentina for being a company that is distinguished by its design and high quality.

Dedicated to the continued development of new markets, business growth we have accompanied a group of people dedicated to production management, administrative and trade, ensure compliance of our deliverables, in any city in the world.
